Summer Internship Application

Rainbow Express Ministries is a community offering children and young adults with and without disabilities, opportunities to share their gifts, to build friendships and to serve others, rooted in the abounding love of God.

We are looking for college-aged/young adults who are seeking to grow in their faith alongside our friends with disabilities. We expect 25-30 hours a week in this internship. Job responsibilities will include: creating/leading programing, administrative tasks, attend staff meetings, relationship building, summer camp involvement, traveling on group trips. Interns are expected to raise at least $1,500 for the summer.
